Dear Video Home Study Student:

Action International Martial Arts Association (AIMAA) is an innovative and leading martial arts organization dedicated to serve as the unifying body for Tae Kwon Do and all Martial Art styles. AIMAA was founded by Grandmaster Hee Il Cho in 1980 and has been steadily expanding in size, knowledge and support ever since. It is not the intent of this organization to unite systems in terms of styles; however, to recognize each style for its unique qualities and unite the great universal spirit of peace and harmony – the fundamental elements found in the studying of all styles of martial arts.

As a Video Home Study Member of Action International Martial Arts Association you are entitled to the following benefits:

 ≥64 Pages full color product catalog (includes action photos & lots of information!)
 ≥Official AIMAA world recognized video rank testing certification
 ≥Ten FREE days training per year at any AIMAA School/World Headquarters
 ≥Discount price on all non-sale books and video tapes
 ≥Personalized official AIMAA membership card
 ≥Official full color AIMAA front and back patches for the uniform

In addition to the above benefits, you may also earn International Rank recognition certificates. To receive rank recognition you must follow the school student member criteria, and also submit an autobiography, video performance of the required techniques (approx. 10-15 minutes in length), and a copy of your current or previous ranking certificate. You must also purchase and study the videos up to your belt level (i.e. if you are testing for green belt you would need the videos: white, yellow, orange and green). If these materials meet the requirements of AIMAA you will be issued official worldwide respected ranking certification. The new video series is designed to provide you with a simple and easy-to-follow system of which you may be graded at the end of each belt level (Black Belt Examinations must be conducted at an AIMAA sanctioned center).

By becoming a member of AIMAA you will receive all of the above-mentioned products, which alone is worth the cash value of over $100.00. You can also train at any AIMAA school for free up to ten days per year. This is worth perhaps thousands of dollars, considering we have schools located worldwide. You will also be backed with the confidence of an organization that has been established for nearly 20 years and is respected and recognized globally.

You may select to have an Annual Home Study Student Membership for a fee of $50.00 per year or a 5-years Membership for a fee of $200.00. We are an organization looking for members who practice the martial arts for the development of the mind, spirit and body in order to promote peace, truth and harmony amongst all people. We look forward to hearing from you and welcoming you as part of the AIMAA family soon!
